IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

SUMMONS FOR JUDGMENT NO.374 OF 2006

IN

SUMMARY SUIT NO.1033 OF 2005

Standard Chartered Bank. ...Plaintiff

vs.

Pradeep Ramchandra Mahajan ...Defendant

Ms.Rekha Tawde i/b. M/s.M.V.Kini & Co., for Plaintiff.

Defendant in person present.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH,J.

DATED: 21st November,2006..

P.C.:-

1. The plaintiff-bank has filed the suit for recovery of the amount which is due to the bank on account of transactions done by the defendant on the credit card issued by the Bank. The defendant appeared in person. He has not filed any application for leave to defend the suit. He has filed the written submissions. Perusal of the written submissions shows that the defendant did not deny his liability. All that he is saying is the suit was filed when the defendant was making payment. It is clear that the defendant was making payment however, he has not made complete payment. There is default in making payment. The defendant has no defence to offer. Therefore, the defendant is not entitled to leave to defend the suit. The summons for judgment is granted. Suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of prayer clause (a). Refund of court fees as per rules.
